Mayor Klein then recognized Charles Bandusky of 8548 S. Lavergne who said he would like to publicly thank Alderman Foy and Frank Kainrath for addressing his concerns for the past couple of weeks. Everyone applauded.

Mayor Klein then recognized Daisy Hines of 6215 W. 83rd Street who had issues with her garbage bill with Allied and mailed them a letter along with a copy to Mayor Klein. She said she refused to pay an extra $3.32 and she said she paid $81.88 on time.

Mayor Klein explained to her that he and Bill Trovato had talked to Allied Waste and told them that they should not have listed that as a late charge. He asked her if they were still picking up her garbage. She said they were. She said as a senior she had to count her pennies and she only has a small bag of garbage. He said he is a senior also and that he uses a compactor and has only a small bag, but said garbage pickup is a necessity so we don't have a choice to keep rodents and vermin from coming into the City.

Mayor Klein then invited the Reavis students to come up after the meeting is adjourned and that anyone at the front table or at the Council table could sign their government class papers

MOTION TO
